

November 07, 2025 at 12:34a.m.: On the Continuing Theft of My Work Product While Causing Me Harm Inside of My Home

I am writing to document that even at 12:35am as I am reading my ipad in bed, I am experiencing sound effects of engines and air horns to mark transitions of progress in my work and/or movements inside of my home.

Unfortunately, the spying team that is operating our nation's national security has elected to illegally spy on my home and steal my work product rather than offer me any form of legitimate formal employment for my talents.

Why? I am certain it is because they are running a completely criminal operation that could not be witnessed by a person like myself.

Simply put, I cannot be trusted to see the depths of depravity to which our country has sunk and still participate in their scheme in any legitimate form of employment.

So instead of a legitimate society that is founded upon law and order and employment of those that are most suitable to perform the tasks that are requested by those in command,

We have a society wherein the least moral people are running a network that is spying on the most talented members of society and criminally stealing that work for themselves while they pretend as if it is them that is discovering this work, conducting this work, and are deserving of the $Trillion Dollar compensation packages.

This is the truth of today's modern world. I am witnessing it first hand while this group of criminals attempts to interact with me (for four years now) as they watch over every aspect of my work, steal it for their own benefits, and cause me grief in the process.

No - I will not work for the criminal operation that is destroying our world.

So, continue to steal my work, cause me harm, and threaten me while I expose your operation for anyone to see.

Donald Trump and Elon Musk: You did this to yourselves. I can see that you have determined it to be an exchange that you are comfortable making, but I do encourage you both to look around and see what happened to the world as you both turned into enflamed pimples of disgusting over-growth, cancerous tumors of fake and illegitimate 'American' prosperity.

You are both deceitful, cancerous, growths that are stealing our nations resources for your own personal gains. As a first generation 'American' immigrant and a 3rd generation 'American' immigrant, you have truly come to represent everything that true Americans should be guarding themselves against.

Get fucked, Donald Trump. Get fucked, Elon Musk. Enjoy the sex trafficking ring and artificial insemination harem that you all are creating and the technology and tax dollars that you all are stealing.

I will never join you. I will never respect you. And, I will never, ever, ever, admire either of you for what you have done.
